Curling Etiquette 101

SMALL THINGS THAT MAKE YOU EVERYONE'S FAVOURITE TEAMMATE.

Be ready. You're up next.

CLEAN YOUR ROCK AND BE SET IN THE HACK WHEN IT'S YOUR TURN.

WE SHOULDN'T NEED A SEARCH PARTY TO FIND YOUR SECOND.

Give them room to throw.

STAY STILL AND OUT OF THE DELIVERING CURLER'S SIGHTLINE WHILE THE OTHER TEAM THROWS.

THEIR SKIP'S BROOM SHOULD BE THE ONLY MOVING TARGET.

The ice doesn't need a hug.

TRY TO KEEP YOUR HANDS AND KNEES OFF THE ICE AFTER YOUR DELIVERY. BODY HEAT LEAVES MARKS THAT CAN AFFECT LATER SHOTS.

YOU CAN ADMIRE THAT BEAUTY STANDING UP.

Agree first. Move rocks second.

LET THE THIRDS AGREE ON THE SCORE BEFORE CLEARING THE HOUSE.

“WE WERE DEFINITELY SITTING TWO” GETS HARDER TO PROVE ONCE YOU’VE MOVED THEM.

Touched it? Say it.

ACCIDENTALLY TOUCH A MOVING ROCK WITH YOUR BROOM?

CALL IT RIGHT AWAY AND LET THE TEAMS SORT IT OUT.

THE RIGHT CALL IS ALWAYS HONESTY, EVEN IF YOUR BROOM WAS THE ONLY WITNESS.

Every game starts with “good curling.”

WISH EVERYONE GOOD CURLING BEFORE THE FIRST ROCK.

YOU CAN WANT TO BEAT THEM AND STILL HAVE MANNERS.

“Good Game” Win or lose.

SHAKE HANDS WITH THE OTHER TEAM AND SAY "GOOD GAME" AFTER THE FINAL ROCK.

YES, EVEN IF THAT LAST SHOT IS GOING TO BOTHER YOU ALL WEEK.

Clean shoes. Clean broom.

CHECK YOUR SHOES AND BRUSH HEAD BEFORE STEPPING ONTO THE ICE.

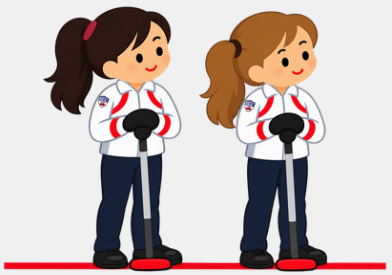

NOBODY WANTS THEIR SHOT RUINED BY WHATEVER YOU BROUGHT FROM THE PARKING LOT.

Your sheet isn't the only game.

GIVE NEIGHBOURING SWEEPERS ROOM, KEEP SIGHTLINES CLEAR AND BE READY TO STOP STRAY ROCKS AFTER TAKEOUTS.

YOUR GAME IS IMPORTANT. SO IS THE ONE BESIDE YOU.

Nobody misses on purpose.

ENCOURAGE YOUR TEAMMATES INSTEAD OF POINTING OUT THEIR MISTAKES.

IF WE MADE EVERY SHOT, WE WOULDN'T BE CLUB CURLING.

The rocks won't sort themselves.

ONCE THE SCORE IS AGREED, HELP RETURN THE ROCKS FOR THE NEXT END.

LET YOUR LEAD GET READY IN THE HACK WHILE EVERYONE ELSE HELPS OUT.

LESS TIME WAITING. MORE TIME CURLING.

Good shots deserve credit.

COMPLIMENT A GOOD SHOT, EVEN WHEN IT BELONGS TO THE OTHER TEAM.

YES, EVEN THE ONE THAT JUST RUINED YOUR ENTIRE END.
